You want to paint a picture of yourself in the best light possible so that recruiters and hiring managers want to interview you. Not even their birthdays were content to be identical: a sanguinary summer midnight had interposed itself between the two boys and their again very distinctive parturitional styles, Marius, the elder, subjecting the delivery room to a systematic and intelligent stare, its negative judgment suspended by decency and disgust, whereas Marcus just clucked and sighed to himself complacently, and seemed to pat himself down, as if after a successful journey through freak weather.
